

MAC-121 : Introduction to CNC

Credits 2

Lab 0

Lecture 2

Clinical/WkExp 0

Session Cycle

Spring Only

Description

This course introduces the concepts and capabilities of computer numerical control machine tools. Topics include setup, operation, and basic applications. Upon completion, students should be able to explain operator safety, machine protection, data input, program preparation, and program storage.